
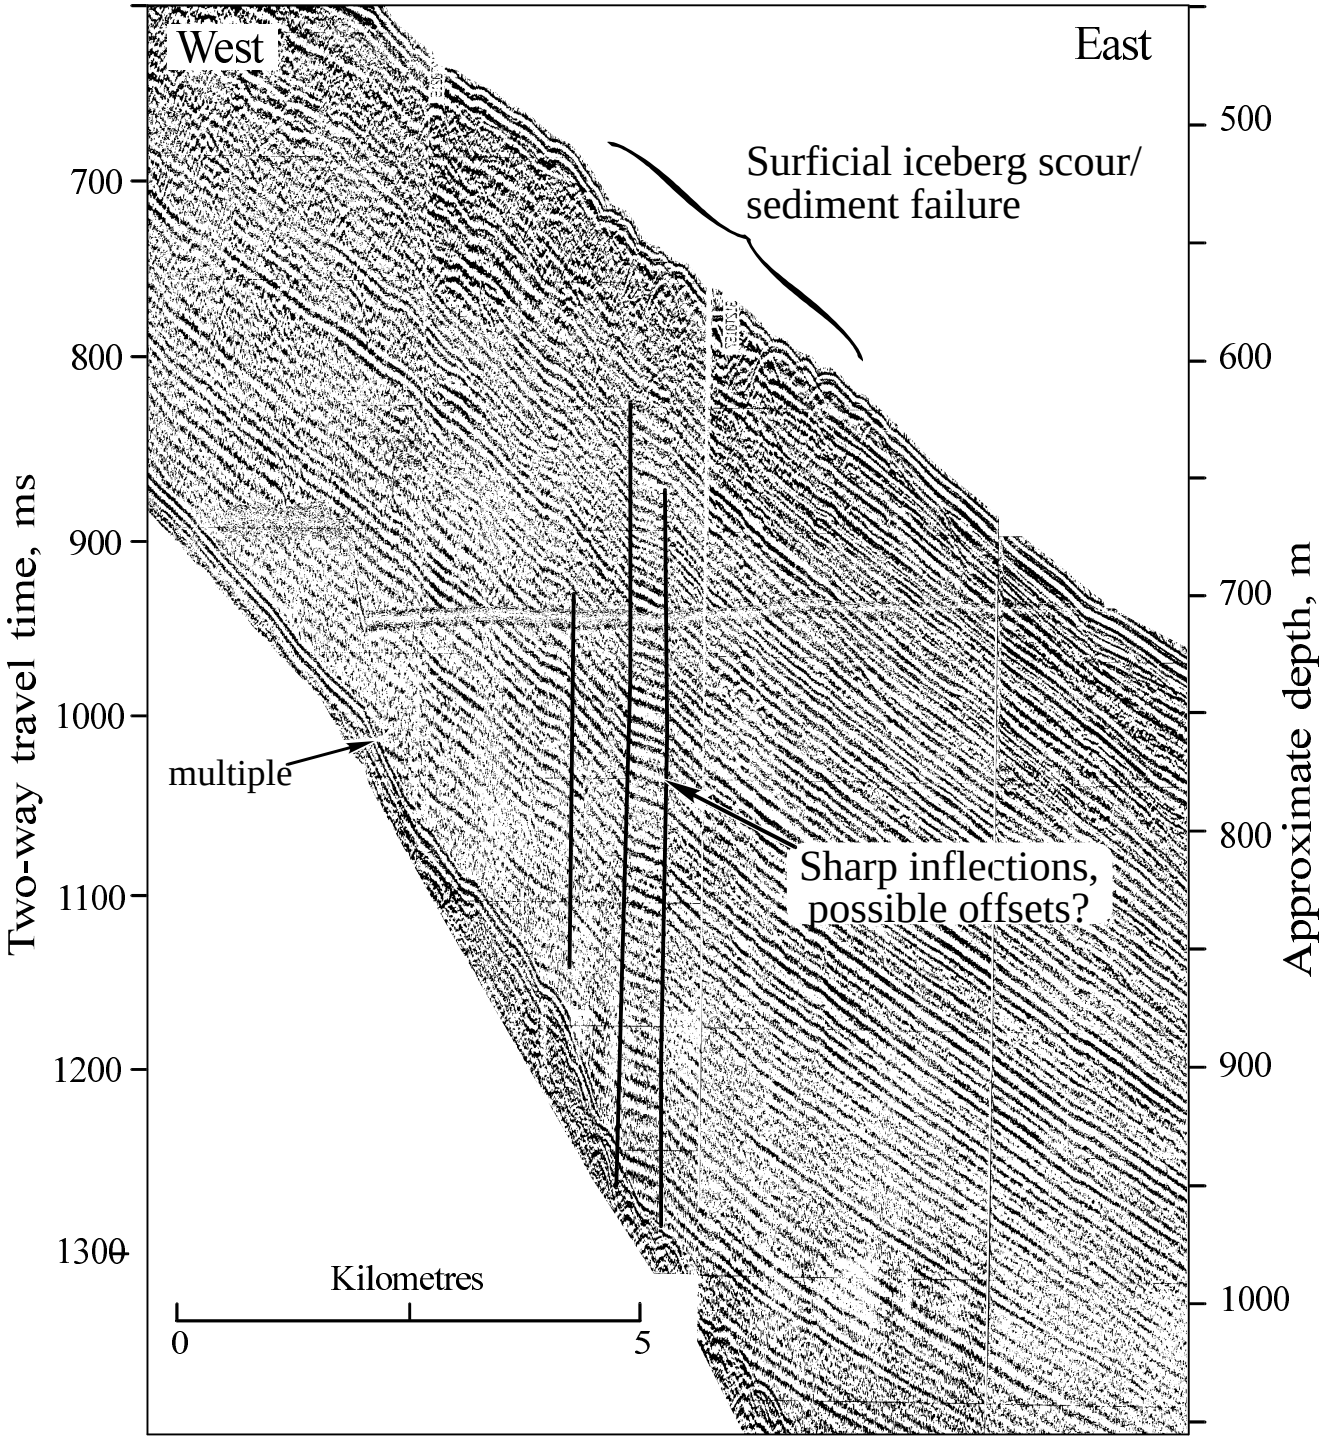

Figure 24. Air gun profile on mid-slope (Line 9) showing inflections which might represent faulting. Surficial iceberg scour zone is restricted to this approximate water depth. Some downslope failure is locally indicated. There is no apparent relationship infered between this and the disturbances at depth.