

Diagrammatic section A-B

LEGEND

PLEISTOCENE AND RECENT

- 5 Sand, silt, clay; modern river deposits
- 4A Sand and gravel; 1 foot - 10 feet thick on eroded till
- 4 Till; locally eroded, elsewhere with thin covering of clay, silt and sand
- 3 Silt and clay; lacustrine
- 2 Sand, in part wind blown into dunes; interbedded with the silt and clay of unit 3
- 1 Till; end moraine, minor sand and gravel

Geological boundary (defined, approximate)

Area of sand dunes

Spring

Gravel

Geology by A.M. Toth, 1959

To accompany Paper 60-25 by A.M. Toth

Cartography by the Geological Survey of Canada, 1960

Township boundary

Marsh

Contours (interval 25 feet and 50 feet)

Depression contour

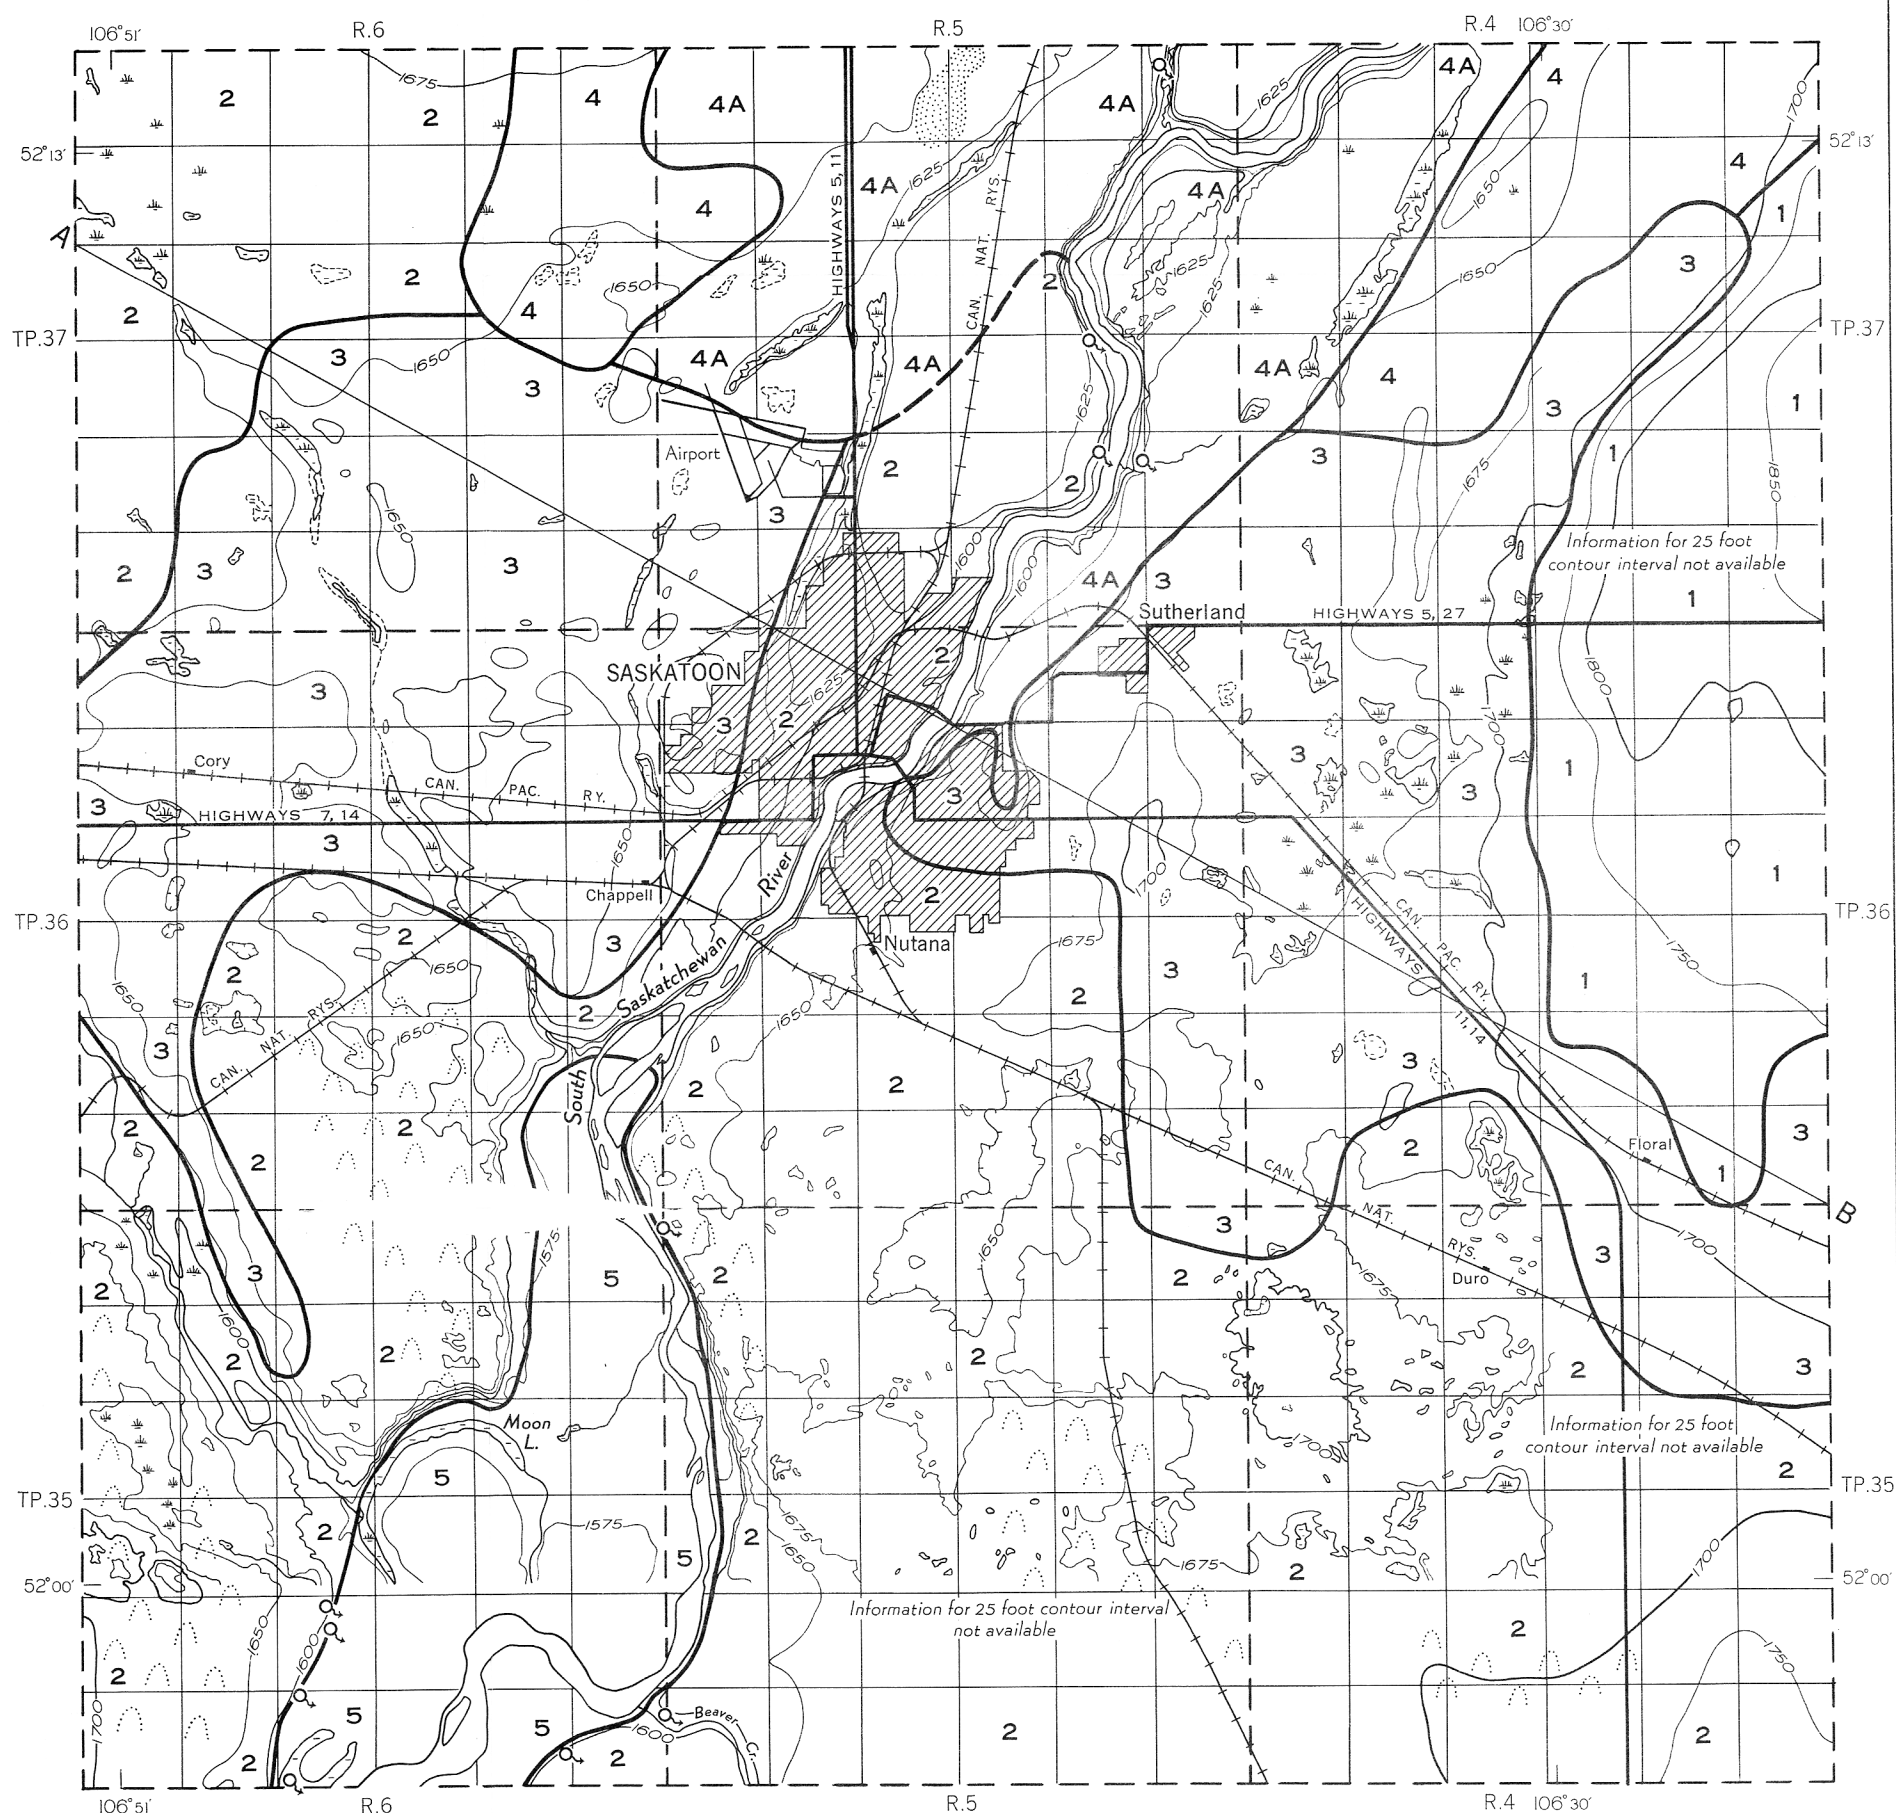

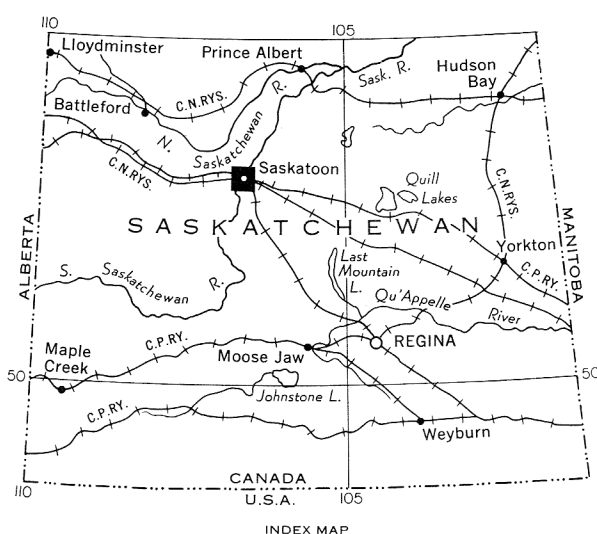

Figure 2. Surface deposits map and diagrammatic section, rural municipality of Cory, No. 344, Saskatchewan

Printed by the Surveys and Mapping Branch