

RURAL MUNICIPALITY OF GRIFFIN NO.-66, SASKATCHEWAN

FIGURE 1

 Glacial drift in which ground water is obtained from sand and gravel layers and pockets within 40 feet of the surface

 Glacial lake clay in which occur only small supplies of a highly mineralized ground water

 Approximate geological boundary between the two bedrock formations underlying the glacial drift Ravenscrag formation to the south of this line, Marine Shale formation to the north

FIGURE 2

