

Figure 1. Schematic location of the map area represented by this set of maps. The Western Churchill Province is composed of the Rae and Hearne domains, separated by the Snowbird tectonic zone (STZ). Greenstone belt rocks in the enlargement window are represented in green.