

Figure 7. Contour map of total sandstone thickness in the Paskapoo Formation. Sandstone units are defined as a sedimentary body with <50% GR derived shale content. Total sandstone thickness is the sum of all interpreted individual thicknesses of sandstone intervals within the Paskapoo Formation at each well location. Data points are indicated by white crosses.