

Photos 11a to 11f. Section 8 Blackwater Lake.

Figure 11a. Overview of lower Mount Clark sandstone, Blackwater Lake Section, view north along side gully below ridge at Blackwater lake (about 20 m of section shown).

Figure 11b. Fine- to medium-grained, cross-bedded and bioturbated sandstone, lower Mount Clark Formation.

Figure 11c. Three-dimensional detail of large-diameter Skolithos burrows (Unit 3), Mount Clark sandstone.

Figure 11d. View showing length of Skolithos burrows (up to 75 cm long, Unit 3), Mount Clark sandstone.

Figure 11e. Planar view of uppermost Mount Clark sandstone beds.

Figure 11f. Bituminous residue solidified after flowing from pores in uppermost Mount Clark sandstone, at contact with overlying Mount Cap shale.