

Figure 10. A least squares fit of the model to the observations in cumulative volume of discoveries (million boe), showing both resource potential and number of remaining fields (10a) and a comparison of discovered and predicted field size distributions (10b) of the Mesozoic clastic structural play in the western Sverdrup Basin.