

Figure 8. An example of using the empirical T-%VRo model for estimation of the magnitude of exhumation at Adgo J-27 well location. The Pliocene Iperk Sequence overlies directly on the Late Eocene Richards Sequence and the estimated magnitude of late Miocene erosion is about 1800 metres (1300 metres difference indicated by temperatures plus the thickness of Iperk Sequence).