

Timeline of Major Earthquake Events in Canada

Significant events are defined as magnitude greater than or equal to 6, or widely felt, or causing significant damage from shaking or tsunami waves, or it is scientifically interesting. Date is the local date.

Timeline of Major Earthquake Events in Canada

