

Each Dot represents 50 inhabitants
 Each Dot represents 1000 inhabitants
 Urban centres in Yukon and Northwest Territories of 1,250 inhabitants and over.

In southern Canada the population of the 15 metropolitan areas and the urban centres of 25,000 inhabitants and over is shown by a disc, the diameter of which is proportionate to its population according to the scale below. The population of these urban centres is additional to the dot distribution.

METROPOLITAN MONTREAL	1,395,400
METROPOLITAN TORONTO	1,117,470
METROPOLITAN VANCOUVER	530,728
METROPOLITAN OTTAWA	281,908
METROPOLITAN VICTORIA	104,303
ST. CATHARINES	37,984
GLACE BAY	25,586