Bunacadie l. 600.
N.S.

Mr. White:

Sir. In answer to your letter in regard to the meaning of the word Bunacadie, as far as I can find out it is an Indian name meaning abundance of mountains. Bear is supposed to be a Gaelic word meaning mountain. Acadie is a pure Indian word meaning abundance.

This is a country place about 45 miles west of Sydney with not many inhabitants.

Any other information we may be able to furnish you, we will be pleased to give it.

yours Truly,

J. Farrell
