South River & lake three miles long coming in from argyle there is a large meadow going south River lake at the down the west side of S. R. lake there is Hattie Saw Mill and King gurch & mans at the lower end there is an iron bridge crossing at the narrows on the east side S. R. lake there is south River ^{lake} ~~potoppie~~ little farther on there is a big round hill called Mac Naughton hill down near the foot of the lak there a big rock or rather mountain ^{standing on} the top of the mountain you will see a good part of the country at the lower end of south lake the level ground comes and down little piece there is a big brook coming called polsons brook & on the main road there is an iron bridge crossing the brook A mac phee has some mills on the brook down from there there is a fine settlement you will find find some mistakes but you can correct them very truly yours J. C. McKinnon
