Dear Sir - In reply to your circular of Oct 5th would say that "Coral" is the name of a post office, opened about two years ago in the Township of Hamilton Co of Northumberland, Ont. It is situated about nine miles north of the beautiful towns of Cobourg and Port Hope. We have a daily service from Port Hope, which I assure you is a very great convenience to this neighborhood, and is appreciated very much. When we knew for certain that an office was to be established here we were somewhat puzzled to find a name for it, that was not already in use somewhere in the Dominion. Having friends living in Michigan whose P. O. was in the Town of Coral (and there being no place of that name in Canada), we decided on that name. "Coral" P. O. is situated in a thriving, farming, community, there being no village or town within 2 or 3 miles.

Mr Muloch was the right man, in the right place and we are very sorry to lose his services and earnestly hope he may regain his health again.
