To James White Esq
Dept. of Interior Ottawa

Dear Sir,

The Village of Port-Carling, was named after The Hon^{ble} John Carling.

Port-Sandfield, after ^{the late} Hon^{ble} Sandfield Macdonald. These two gentlemen visited this part of Muskoka about 1871 & 1872. —

Port-Carling before that was called Indian Village, there were about 20 Indians living ^{here} in 1870 when I came here. —

I am, Sir,

Yours truly
J. D. Stubbs.

The Late Mr A. P. Cockburn contributed much to the development & improvement of these Districts.
he was respected & liked by all. J. D.
