Greenvale Sept 11th

Dear sir in reply to yours of Aug 22nd This settlement got its name in the year 1842 named by Daniel Mooney my late father he being one of the first-settlers in this place that left County Antrim Ireland in 1821 it never had any other name There is no mountains near one mile north there is a large spring raising out of level ground called fountain head named by him also some years later it would give me pleasure in answering any question I could at anytime

Yours P M
