Dear Sir

in regard to the information you want North Carleton was first Seven Mile Bay it took its first name from the situation of the place it is Seven Miles from Seacow Head light to Carleton Point the inland portion of the Straits being called a bay

Dear Sir I might give you some more information in connection with North Carleton it has one of the handsomest Sceneries of the island Island it fronts on shore facing Cape Tormentine a distance of only 6 1/2 or 7 miles where the proposed tunnel is to be can see the buildings on the other shore and see the train on the Tormentine branch in North Carleton Prince Co.
